PROF. CHANDLER of New York City, in a lecture delivered by him at Cooper Institute, March 19, 1870, said:

"It is hardly necessary to enlarge upon the terrible accidents which have resulted from the use of unsafe kerosene; you have only to read the newspapers from day to day to see them. It is stated by some that these are exaggerated; that these accidents never occur, and that you and I never had a friend burned to death; still we do have an enormous number of terrible accidents from petroleum. In the last seven months of 1869 there were fifty five kerosene accidents in New York, resulting in twenty-three deaths, eighteen serious injuries and fourteen slight ones. The total result for the year 1869, for the City of New York which I myself have cut from newspapers is fifty-two fatal accidents from dangerous kerosene, fifty severe and six slight, in all 108 persons to my knowledge, from my own reading have been injured by kerosene in one year."

THE NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD.

It has been with great difficulty and watchfulness that Holden, Littlefield, Swepson and Billy Smith could be driven from their purpose of depriving the State of the possession of this valuable piece of property. If Littlefield had not been called away to give his personal attention to his Florida speculations, the road would have been lost to the State during the last Legislature, when bribery swayed adventurous carpet-baggers and roguish scalawags in the work of legislating for, and stealing from the State.

Holden, Littlefield & Co. have robbed the State of everything—its bonds, its money, its credit, its fair fame and name for meeting its obligations—and, finally, Littlefield wanted to buy the North Carolina Railroad, about the last thing she owns, and pay for it in bonds he had already stolen or expected to steal.

This dropped through, as we have seen, and then the Governor and his Board of Directors attempted to lease out the road for twenty years, but were driven from their purpose by the frowns of an indignant public.

The road is in debt and under mortgage, and yet, last year, it paid into the State Treasury $180,000; it is now ready to pay in $190,000 more. One scheme is to sell the road and put the State to banking on the money. Another scheme is to consolidate the road with the Northwestern Road, and let the former complete the latter. Another to lease to the Danville Road; another to surrender that part of the road between Raleigh and Goldsboro to the Atlantic and North Carolina Company, and still another to give the State's interest over to the management of the private Stockholders, with the understanding to make Major Smith President. The argument for this last proposition is, that as at present managed, it is a political machine. We would simply meet this argument with the inquiry, who but Billy Smith and Gov. Holden uses it as a political machine?

It is very easy to account for the great eagerness manifested to get hold of this Road—it commands the situation. Last year the Raleigh & Gaston Road paid to the North Carolina Road a bonus of $87,234.08, for turning her freights off at Raleigh instead of taking them to Goldsboro'.

The Danville Road pays to the North Carolina Road one dollar for every through passenger to or from Charlotte to Greensboro', which sum is over and above what the passenger pays for his fare. The Raleigh and Gaston Road pays to the North Carolina Road one dollar more than the Danville Road does, for every through passenger who will come over that Road instead of going over the Danville Road.

Two or three weeks ago, out of eighty passengers from Charlotte seventy-five of them left the Road at Greensboro. The Danville Road would pay, at any time, five per cent on the entire capital stock of the North Carolina Road for a lease of that part of it from Greensboro to Charlotte. But such an arrangement would result in the going down of the balance of the line, so that all the convenience of such a work to the people between Greensboro and Raleigh, and between Raleigh and Goldsboro', which was promised to them when they were paying their money to build it, would be taken away from them; and at the same time the people of the West would be injured rather than benefited by the fact that their connections would be with a road in the hands of Northern capitalists, having no interest in common with them, instead of with a road in the management of their own State and their own people.

Let us prove all things and hold fast that which is good. It is far better to control our own great State work for the good of our own people than to let it pass into the hands of sharpers or capitalists, whose sole aim would be to make money out of it, without regard to the profit or convenience of those who built it.

ELECTION IN ALAMANCE, GUILFORD AND CASWELL.

A gentleman of Yanceyville writes, that all the Democratic Conservative candidates of that county are elected, namely Col. Livingston Brown to the Senate, and Col. R. R. Witherspoon and Mr. Paylor, to the House of Representatives. The Radicals had no regular nominations, many of the negroes having that they had voted for the Radicals for years, and were promised great things, and were no better off now than they were at first, and did not intend to support them any longer.

By a gentleman from GUILFORD.

We have been favored by a friend in Greensboro', with the following: That Guilford gave Smith 1,200 majority, that Alamance gave Captain Graham 176 majority, making Captain Graham's majority in the district 150. The result in Guilford is attributable to Smith's position in regard to the consolidation of the North Carolina and the Western railroads. The report having got out that Captain Graham was opposed to the consolidation.

We received the following dispatch last night:

GRAHAM, Dec. 28.

Official vote of Alamance: Graham, 1,784; McAlister 1074; Graham's majority 710. In Guilford, Smith's majority 310, unprecedented.

JUDGE BOND AND BURGIN—AGAIN.

Some days ago we called attention to the disreputable conduct of Judge Bond, in clandestinely discharging B. G. Burgin from jail. Since then we have examined the records in the case of Burgin and find there these entries:

"UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
District of North Carolina,
October 2nd, 1870.

This cause being heard and considered the Marshal is ordered to release the petitioner from custody under the writ with in named.

HUGH L. BOND,
Judge of the Circuit Court
for the 4th Circuit.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
District of North Carolina, ss:
In the matter of } In Chambers,
B. G. Burgin, } Habeas Corpus.

To the Marshal of said District, Greeting:

You are hereby ordered and directed to release, from custody, the body of B. G. Burgin, now held by you under and by virtue of certain writs mentioned in your return in this case, without delay.

Given under my hand this twenty fourth day of November, eighteen hundred and seventy, at the district aforesaid.

HUGH L. BOND,
Judge of the Circuit Court
of the United States
for the 4th Circuit.

The Marshal's return is as follows:

"Received 28th November, 1870, late in the evening, and executed the order by releasing the prisoner at once.

S. T. CARROW,
U. S. Marshal."

It seems from the foregoing that he had determined to discharge Burgin as early as the 3rd of October last; then why did he detain him a day after that time? If the Judge was correct in his ruling, Burgin was entitled then to be discharged, and yet he keeps a man so entitled in jail for nearly two months. But he waits until the 24th of November to issue his mandate to the Marshal, and withholds that until late in the evening of the 28th of November; then, without giving any notice to the parties interested, or their counsel, he gives the mandate to the Marshal, he turns Burgin out in the dark, who flees from the State and escapes from the process in the hands of the Sheriff of Wake county, of which process Judge Bond had notice.

This shameful conduct was for the purpose of letting Burgin flee the State. What do the American people think of such a Judge!

Burgin, in custody of the jailor, had called on Gov. Holden and demanded pay for certain services, and also, to be furnished counsel in the trial which he then expected to have to undergo for his outrages in Alamance and Caswell, both of which the Governor declined to furnish.—Burgin then swore, in the presence of more persons than one, that he would make disclosures, if brought to trial, that would startle the State and, to use his own language, "give Gov. Holden and the party h—l." He, at the same time, declared that proposals had been made to him to provide for his escape from the State, and that he had peremptorily declined them, as he "did not intend to have the sins of Gov. Holden piled on his shoulders, and become a scape-goat for them."

Whether the latter part of this declaration was all gammon, or whether he afterwards reconsidered the matter and concluded it would be better to accept the "proposals" and leave, matters not. He certainly left, and that secretly, in the night "late in the evening," and thus escaped the State processes against him. And further, we say, the peculiar manner in which Judge Bond dealt with the case enabled him to escape.

Again, we ask, what will the people of America think of such a Judge?

A RICHMOND HILL INCIDENT.

For a long time it has been a custom at the Richmond Hill Law School, to wind up the exercises with a dinner party, with all the students and his Honor, the Chief Justice, present.

At the close of the present year, 15th inst., at the usual dinner, the Chief Justice presided. Several toasts were offered by him and drank sans, because of the sentiment. At the close, one of the students proposed a toast "to the success of the Conservative party," whereupon the C. J. became very indignant, arose from the table, and proceeded to administer a tremendous rebuke upon the students, especially upon two of them. In reference to these two, he remarked that he could not endure them, that he considered it a great condescension even to speak to them.

One of them asked what they had done to incur his displeasure, when he replied that they were unworthy the name of men because one of them subscribed for the Raleigh SENTINEL and the other for the Wilmington Journal.

We have these facts from a correspondent who vouches for the truth of the statement. One of the young gentlemen alluded to was Mr. John J. Fowler, of Wilmington, the other Mr. W. J. Means, of Concord.

We are not much surprised to learn that the Chief Justice has not much love for the SENTINEL; we have not made any extra effort to conciliate him since his coalition with Holden in outraging the people of Alamance and Caswell.

GEORGIA ELECTIONS.

AUGUSTA, Dec. 24.—Sufficient returns from all portions of the State have been received to show that the State has gone largely Democratic. It is tolerably certain that the following Democrats are elected to Congress: In the first District, W. W. Payne to 41st Congress, A. T. McIntyre to 42d Congress; third District, William P. Wright to 41st and 42d Congress; sixth District, Wm. P. Price to 41st and 42d Congress; seventh District, Young to 41st and 42d Congress. The second and fourth Districts are doubtful; it is thought they have gone Republican, and it will take the official count to decide.

The Democrats have elected three-fourths of the Legislature.

A Woman's Rights Convention is to meet at Columbia, S. C., on the 8th of February next. One Mary Warren is the moving spirit.

THE AUDITOR'S REPORT.

This document has been printed and was laid on the desks of members before the adjournment. It is a precious document, the contents of which would startle the tax payers of the State. We design making extracts from it from time to time, that the public may have some idea of "the way the money went," that the tax gathers have been collecting off them.

It is proper to state here that this report does not fully and fairly show the enormity of extravagance that has been indulged in by this enormously extravagant administration. A great deal of money recklessly spent on supernumerary officials and Radical hangers-on was not drawn until after the close of the fiscal year, (Sept. 30th) covered by this report, and consequently will hereafter be made to appear as part of the expenditures of the current fiscal year under a Conservative Legislature, provided the Legislature should allow the matter to glide on smoothly without inquiry, which we presume it will not do.

We know of several payments that have been made, which were little less than throwing away that much of the people's money, and that differ from down right robbery only in name, since the closing of this report, some of which were brought to light in the message of Gov. Caldwell, made to the House last week, in response to Mr. Jordan's resolution.

We shall allude to the facts stated in that special message hereafter. At present we shall pay our respects to some of the figures in the tabular statement of the "different purposes for which the disbursements of the public fund were made." This opens up a rich field of speculation, contemplation, and exploration for the tax payer.

In statement D, of the Report, which gives the aggregate of expenditures for the different accounts, we find one, "Fugitives from Justice, $7,195.68." Now reader, have you an intelligent idea of what those seven thousand and odd dollars were paid out for? We will show you, from the record—the report itself—what it was for. In the "detailed statement" of this account are the following items.

G. R. Kimball,	$ 633.00
L. H. Mowry,	1482.68
J. P. Parrott,	646.75
G. W. Tillon,	819.58
W. T. Gautney,	200.00
R. F. Lehman,	100.00
A. S. Seymour,	100.00
M. McDonald,	100.00
W. J. Clarke,	350.00
A. W. Fisher,	1679.50
N. R. Sutton,	150.00
E. R. Stanley,	350.00
D. J. Uzzle,	50.00
C. L. Estes,	110.00
S. A. Douglas,	325.00
J. E. Prather,	42.00
W. C. Parker,	7.00
J. H. McIlhee,	404.40

Now, the above list constitutes Gov. Holden's "detective force," in part, many of whom were sneaking about, listening to catch some careless or thoughtless expression of some citizen of the State and run to Raleigh with it to the Governor, who seems to have paid liberally for such valuable service. Of course it was to the interest of these spies and detectives to "smell" the Governor and keep up their work and their pay, and the Governor was willing enough to be "stuffed," and while the honest, industrious farmers of the State were ploughing out their taxes in the hot fields, with the sweat running from their sun-browned faces "like water," these lazy bloodsuckers were running to the Governor with their grand discoveries and he was paying out to them the people's money, "like water" for what they brought him.

In the above detailed items in the "fugitives from justice" account, the $325 paid to Stephen A. Douglas, and the $1,679.50 paid to A. W. Fisher, were in addition to the pay Douglas received as an officer in the militia, and Fisher received as Adjutant General of the State. Also the sum of $350 to Col. W. J. Clarke was in addition to his pay as "Col. Clarke of the State melish," and his heroic exploits in quelling the insurrection in Raleigh on the 4th of August.

Surely the present Legislature has acted wisely in repealing an act which allowed the Executive such extravagances as are exhibited in this "Fugitives from Justice" account, and of which he appears, by the report, to have so fully availed himself.—We shall allude to this report again as opportunity may serve.

DISASTROUS FIRE IN RICHMOND.

We gave in an extra, on Monday, an account of the disastrous fire in Richmond on Saturday night last. Additional particulars will be found in the telegraphic summary.

The fire was discovered by the night-watchman about two o'clock, issuing from the wine room of the Spotswood House.

The alarm was immediately given to the inmates, and a scene of terror ensued which appalled the stoutest hearts of those who witnessed it. Men, women and children rushed frantically into the pitiless winter air, with whatever garments they could snatch to shield them.

Many of the boarders remained undisturbed for some time after the fire had progressed to a fearful extent, despite the commotion and noise which prevailed around them, and many of these, it is feared, became victims of the devouring element.

The fire department were on the ground with their usual promptness, but despite their heroic efforts, combined with that of hundreds of citizens who repaired with all haste to the scene, the entire building was speedily enveloped in fire, which, borne by an easterly wind, soon communicated to the adjacent buildings in that direction.

In less than half an hour from the moment at which the fire was discovered, the hotel was one livid mass of flames.

LIST OF THE KILLED.

The following is a complete list of those known to have been burned in the building, so far as we have been able to ascertain:

Erasmus Rose, a nephew of Mr. Franklin Stearns, and formerly of the firm of Pleasants & Rose.

Samuel Hines, a salesman in the store of Moses Millhiser, 911, Main street.

Mrs. Cornelia, the house-keeper of the hotel.

Mr. Robinson, clerk to the cigar stand at Mr. Wm. Euker's, No. 910, Main street.

Mr. Thomas, agent of the Panorama of Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress.

It is feared that many others perished.

A man was seen to leap from a third story window in the rear of the building, and falling upon a mass of rubbish below, was literally dashed to pieces. The rear wall falling soon afterward, covered the mangled remains in a grave of fire.

THE INSURED.

Mr. Clarke, one of the stewards of the hotel, leaped from one of the third story windows, and was painfully injured, his thigh and ankle being fractured.

Mr. C. B. Luck, one of the proprietors, was painfully, though not seriously, burned about the face and hands in his heroic endeavors to save his guests.

F. M. Green, a clerk in the office of Supervisor Pechey, was injured in the foot by falling broken glass.

There were also a large number of narrow escapes.

A FEARFUL INCIDENT.

During the height of the conflagration, with sheets of flame rolling and hissing like a demon of wrath, a gentleman was seen sitting at the window of one of the upper stories, perfectly dazed with fear, deliberately tearing and throwing out of the window pieces of paper.

It is supposed that, seeing no way of escape he quietly and calmly awaited his awful doom,—with what feeling, can be better imagined than described.

LOSS OF PROPERTY.

The property destroyed is as follows:

The Spotswood Hotel, owned by the Crenshaw estate, valued at $140,000; insured in New York companies by D. W. Walker & Co., agents, on building $80,000; on furniture, $20,000; with the North British company, T. M. Alfriend & Son, agents, for $6,000. Other insurance, but not ascertained.

The two buildings adjoining on the east, owned by the estate of Jas. H. Grant, insured in the National, of Baltimore, for $8,000, and with J. H. Montague, for $8,000.

Branch & Currant. Loss on stock not ascertained. Insured in North British Company for $5,000.

Mayor Kelley's library. Insured for $2,000 in the same company.

Howe sewing machine establishment, in the hotel building, on the corner of Eighth street; stock, $2,000; insured for $1,500; stock, partially ruined.

W. J. Anderson, stoves and tinware. Stock valued at $3,000, totally destroyed. Insured for full amount in Continental of New York. Building owned by the estate of Denoon. Insured for $1,000 in the Mutual Assurance.

J. H. Marsh, music dealer; loss not ascertained. Stock saved in a very damaged condition.

The office of the Southern Express Company was in the hotel building. The packages on the first floor, and the books and papers probably saved.

The safes of the Company were attempted to be got out, but the effort failed. It is reported that they contain a large amount of money. There was a large quantity of freight in the building which was destroyed. The entire loss cannot now be ascertained. There was but little insurance.

Capt. John Carson, of the U. S. Revenue Cutter, "E. A. Stevens," was presented with a handsome watch and chain by the petty officers and crew of his ship on Christmas day while in port at Newbern.

Two negroes, named Amos Moore and Sam Griffin, indulged in a shooting scrape on Sunday the 18th inst., near Gatlesboro', which terminated in Moore receiving a painful wound in the thigh. As usual, alcohol and women was the cause.

On last Thursday night at Harrisburg depot, on the N. C. R. R., a negro man, in attempting to get on board of the train, while in motion, fell from the platform and was so badly crushed that death ensued in a few hours.

E. H. McQuigg, of Wilmington, who received the appointment of U. S. Commissioner from the U. S. Circuit Court recently in session in this city, qualified on Friday last and entered upon the duties of his office.

The pork crop in Iredell and the adjacent Counties is said to be unusually fine this season.

A number of young ladies and gentlemen of Warsaw, N. C., gave an entertainment on the 23d inst., consisting of charades, &c., for the purpose of raising funds for the benefit of the Baptist Church at that place.

VIRGINIUS BALLARD BARHAM,
AGED 5 YEARS, 5 MONTHS AND 7 DAYS.

All joy, all sunshine and all love
Passed from my life away,
When angels carried him above,
Whom mortals could not stay.

My cherished child, my Hal boy,
My loveliest and the best;
No more my heart can know a joy,
Or from my anguish rest.

Does there in Gilead grow a balm
For sorrow such as mine?
Give to my heart this Heavenly calm,
Oh! Savior be it thine.

To heal the wound, to pour the balm,
Upon my breaking heart,
To soothe my sorrow, and to calm
Despair from which I start!

The sun may shine as bright, but still
The world seems dark to me;
My spirit bends not to my will,
I can but think of thee.

Of thee my boy, my blessing, pride,
So manly, noble, true;
When thou wert with me, by my side
With eyes of heavenly blue.

Oh, God! I cannot quell my grief,
In vain I've struggled, prayed,
My breaking heart finds no relief,
I am by sorrow swayed.

Tossed to and fro; thy grace alone
Must keep my life from blight;
Yet dare I murmur, when I own
Thou doest all things right?

Forgive me if my heart has strayed
Far from thy paths to-night;
If in my anguish I forget
Thy word to me is Light.

For oh! I know, in anger Thou
Hast never chastened me,
And if thou slay me, I will bow
And put my trust in Thee!

But give my soul the peace the world
Has ever failed to give;
And though by tempest tossed and hurled
Triumphant I shall live!

Shall live, and know, with love my own,
My Darling, gone before,
And waiting now to lead me to
The bright and Heavenly shore.

The river passed, the conflict o'er,
No more I'll pine; for free
From earthly fetters, I shall haste
To God, to Heaven and Thee.

Oh! welcome hour! to mine the hand
'Neath God's own strengthening grace,
To lead those earth ones left to me,
To see thee face to face.

KINSTON, N. C.

REMARKS OF MR. WILCOX, OF ASHE,

On the Convention Bill, Wednesday, Dec. 21st, in the House of Representatives

MR. SPEAKER AND GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:—This subject of Convention is one which is agitating the minds of the people, of N. C. to an extent almost unparalleled in the history of this old commonwealth. I presume that it is conceded by every one upon this floor to be a matter of the greatest importance to every true citizen within her great circumference.

So great is the stress laid upon this matter as the only course by which we as the representatives of an oppressed people can take for the relief of their burdens, that we almost fear lest the people who are to be the judges of this matter, may fail to recognize the great boon which they have in their power to grasp. I come here Mr. Speaker pledged against any convention which might emanate from that body as a co-ordinary command to the people regardless of their feelings. I came here furthermore to give an emphatic vote against all resolutions of Convention ordered by this body without consulting the feelings of my constituents as to whether they desired it or not.

And I desire to say here that I still remain true to my constituency. But I have the pleasure to say this, knowing that after so many Legislative bodies have met in this hall and presumed to pass fix and tie too many odious laws to the devoted people of North Carolina entirely regardless of the wail of woe rising from every part of the commonwealth.

I repeat, Mr. Speaker, that I have the pleasure to say to my people, that at last there is a body of true and conscientious men assembled in this old Capito, who are willing and anxious to acknowledge the sovereignty of the common citizens of the State, and the due deference which they have a right to be shown.

I would have preferred that the odious clauses of this Constitution had been changed by legislative enactment, if it had been possible for us to have accomplished this in time to have saved the State from the financial ruin that seems inevitable, and I had hoped that this body would be able to extricate the people from their oppression and the State from its embarrassment. But since my arrival and participation in the business of this legislative body, and after a scrutinous examination into all the minutia of the odious clauses of this Constitution, I have arrived at the conclusion that if I carry out my pledge to my people, which was retrenchment and reform, I shall be compelled to ask them to give us a restricted Convention, which proceeding will enable me to consummate my pledge and their desires.

I cannot, for my life, conceive how a restricted Convention submitted to the people will be so ruinous to the interest of the State as some gentlemen will maintain upon this floor. I regard our position as a legislative body in this light, and in no other: That we are the representatives of a tax burdened people; that they are encumbered with all the disagreeable odium of debt, and that upon us rest their only hope of safety; that they have sent us here to transact our business judiciously and expertly, guarding all the incomes and watching the outgoes with a suspicious eye.

Now, sir, admitting, as all do, that this Constitution is rapidly dragging the State into a deplorable bankruptcy from which nothing but absolute repudiation can extricate her, and that every day that we legislate under its provisions that we are ruthlessly wasting the people's money; now, sir, if this be so, and no one can doubt it, how can we sit idly by and see the life-blood of our old State gushing forth from a wound in her most vital part received from vile excrescences upon her body politic? When our friends are sick we send the quickest messenger for the doctor, lest he die before we can get any remedy applied for his relief.

Now, sir, I maintain that we have upon our hands a friend laboring under a most fearful disease, and according to the symptoms he requires speedy relief or death will be the inevitable result. The State of North Carolina to-day stands in a most precarious condition; her finances are being wasted in a disgraceful manner; her credit is being reduced to a state absolutely undignified and dishonorable; and I consider that so long as we continue to legislate under this constitution, we not only fail to accomplish the object of our hearts' greatest desire, but that we help to hurl the State down the precipice of destruction to which she is so rapidly approaching. We stand here with all the lights before us as sentinels on the outpost and if we fail to give the alarm of approaching dangers we fall short of our duty to our constituents. Whilst I am opposed to a convention emanating from this body peremptory, I am at the same time in favor of one of a restricted character submitted to the people. I desire to warn them of our own incapacity to relieve them quickly except we resort to a convention, then if they choose to hold us to the present constitution, I am willing to submit cheerfully with a conscious feeling that I had performed my duty and only my duty to my fellow citizens.

We have repealed all of the odious law enacted by the last General Assembly; we have reduced all of the extravagant salaries and fees not prescribed by the constitution; and now but two alternations are left. Either we are to launch out on a long tedious, expensive and uncertain course for changing this constitution, or the people must give us a restricted Convention, by which we may change it at once, and thereby check this extravagant waste of money which must result in case of a refusal.

If sir, we attempt to change the constitution by Legislative enactment, it will require at least three years to accomplish it, provided we could succeed at all.

Now, sir, we are compelled by an oath prescribed by this constitution to levy a tax sufficient to pay the interest on the public debt. Should we do so the amount levied will be at least two and a half millions of dollars, a sum so large as can be seen at once will crush out all enterprise and prostrate all energy.

We are just recovering from a devastating war and it is evident that a people so ruined cannot stand this burden of taxation. While we would be just to our creditors we must be true to ourselves.

Then, sir, I conclude that a change in the Constitution is a necessity, and if so by what means can this be expeditiously effected. Is it by legislative enactment? To do this by the mode prescribed would require a bill passed by three fifths of this body, then six months publication, and then by a vote of three-fourths of the coming Legislature and then be returned to the people for ratification. Should either of these links fail all the others would do so likewise, and we would be at once thrown back where we commenced, should we risk this tedious uncertain mode, then a short and safe one is opened to us? One too which will solve this question of taxation at once, and relieve the minds of the people. Should we succeed by the legislative mode, it will take, as I said before, at least three years, during which time nearly eight millions of dollars would be dragged from our poor struggling people. Then, sir, the duty that we owe to ourselves and families demand that a change be made and made quickly, and with a view of consummating that idea I give my cordial support to the bill under discussion.

The Great Pictorial Annual.

Hostetter's United States Almanac for 1871, for distribution, gratis, throughout the United States, and all civilized countries of the Western Hemisphere, will be published about the first of January, in the English, German, French, Norwegian, Welsh, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish languages, and will be widely understood to be the Philosophy of health and how to avoid and ponder the calamities of life. It contains, in addition to an admirable medical treatise on the causes, prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it embraces a large amount of information interesting to the merchant, the mechanic, the miner, the farmer, the planter, and professional man; and the calculations have been made for each meridians and latitudes as are most reliable for a correct and comprehensive NATIONAL CALENDAR.

The nature, uses, and extraordinary sanitary effects of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, as made long and alterative of more than half the civilized world, are fully set forth in its pages, which are interspersed with pertinent illustrations, valuable receipts for the household and farm, humorous anecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading matter, original and selected. Among the Annuals to appear with the opening of the year this will be one of the most useful and may be had for the asking. The proprietors, Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburg, Pa., on receipt of a two cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail to any person who could perchance not be in the neighborhood. The Bitters are sold in every city, town and village, and are extensively used throughout the entire civilized world.

RALEIGH, N. C.

TO LAND OWNERS:—

The object of this enterprise since its commencement, now nearly two years, has been and will continue to be to induce immigration to our State, and to turn the tide from the great West to our sunny South, also to call their attention to the superior advantages and inducements we hold out over all other States.

Now being the season of the year when farmers and others have leisure to travel, and many are visiting our State, examining farms with a view of purchasing, to come and make their homes with us, we would particularly request all land owners, who have land to sell or lease, and wish to find buyers for the same to call at our office, or address us as below. There is scarcely a day passes by in which we receive letters making inquiry, and to excuse ourselves for not so answering them, as many are anxious to find customers that all can avail themselves of this opportunity of offering for sale land of every kind. Our charges being only ½ of one half per cent on gross amount of sales, for advertising, and all other expenses included, and this only when a sale is perfected. Many, I know, have a delicacy in offering for sale, lest they go out of the reach of their neighbors to know that their property is on the market. This is prevented in our office; no information given unless we know the parties to be buyers, and we do not advertise any farms or lands within the State unless requested to do so. I have been trying and making every effort since I came here two years ago to induce our land owners to divide their lands into small lots of one half or more to encourage new, and to induce a responsible class of people on easy terms, to enable them to improve the part they bought. Some have taken my advice, and now the one half is worth more than the whole was without improvements. This is the true course to be pursued, as but very few have come to the Northern States want more than from one hundred to three hundred acres in a farm, and will give more in proportion for such small lots than they will for the large plantations of one thousand and two thousand acres. If you want to encourage immigration, send us a part of your lands for sale, that we may offer such inducements as will bring thousands to our State.

INSTALLATIONS.—Tuesday night, (anniversary of St. John the Evangelist,) was general installation night among the Masonic bodies of Raleigh.

Past Grand Master, Wm. G. Hill performed the ceremonies of installation as follows:

First, Hiram Lodge, No. 40:—
D. W. Bain, Master.
J. H. Mills, (p.) S. W.
A. S. Lee, J. W.
L. E. Heartt (p.) Treasurer.
E. B. Thomas, Secretary.
John Nichols, S. D.
J. B. Gayle, J. D.
J. C. R. Little, Marshal.
J. Matthews, Steward.
C. D. Christophers, Steward.
J. H. Separk, Tyler.

Next, the officers of Raleigh Chapter No. 10 R. A. M., were installed by the same, as Past Grand High Priest, namely:
Wm. G. Hill, H. P. (not reinstalled.)
J. B. Neathery, (p.) King.
R. H. Bradley, Scribe.
John Nichols, C. of H.
Wm. H. Dodd, (p.) P. S.
Wm. Simpson, R. A. C.
John C. Blake, G. M. 3 V.
J. M. Rosenbaum (p.) G. M. 2 V.
John C. Gorman, G. M. 1 V.
M. Gruneman, Treasurer.
D. W. Bain, Secretary.
J. H. Separk, Guard.

P. G. M. Hill then proceeded to install the officers of Wm. G. Hill Lodge, No. 218, as follows:

Wm. Simpson,	Master
R. H. Bradley,	S. W.
J. C. Blake,	J. W.
N. B. Broughton,	S. D.
Jno. Whitelaw,	J. D.
J. H. Green,	Stewards
Stanley Ringber,
J. C. Gorman,	Marshal
J. H. Separk,	Tyler

Messrs. Bradley, Blake and Gorman were appointed the standing committee of the special charity fund.

After the installations there was an informal convention of the members in regard to the approaching centennial anniversary of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, which, by resolution of the Grand Lodge, will be celebrated in this city on the 14th of January, prox., and partial reports from committees in regard to it.—We refer the Fraternity to the notice of this celebration, in another colmn, by Grand Secretary D. W. Bain. It will be a grand time with the members of the "Mystic Arc," a large number of whom are expected in the city on the occasion, although the day will be observed throughout the State by the subordinate Lodges.

ANOTHER GRAND RALLY.—For several days last week, notices were posted up all over the city, for a "grand Republican rally" at the Court House, on Saturday 24th, at 10 o'clock. The hour arrived, the bell was rung—then rung again—and then rung once more, and the grand rally begun—in a horn. We saw Cape Cod Ashley going into the Court House and immediately sent over a reporter, who reported that C. C. had not come up to the meeting but was in one of the offices below. Our reporter found seven negroes standing around the stove, and that was about the full attendance at the grand rally, for the day.

We are surprised that Calvin Rogers, and Judge Olds, and Mr. Phillips and Rotating Dick didn't come to the grand rally; were are more surprised that Farris and Collards and Dr. Banks, were not there, and most surprised of all at seeing John Whitaker leaving, and Friday Jones clean out of hearing of the call.

We went up Fayetteville street and tried to induce several of the faithful to go to the "grand rally," but they "didn't have time," and seeing it was bound to be "dead failure" we called on Logan to go and hold an inquest over the corpse, but owing to the bad odor of the corpse, he declined. And that is all about the "grand rally" on Saturday last.

A COMMENDABLE PRECAUTION.—The present Christmas season has been noted for destructive fires. Besides the disastrous conflagration of the Spotswood House and contiguous buildings in Richmond, the telegraph has informed us of the burning of most of the business part of Harrisonburg, Va., a large woolen factory in Massachusetts, and another woolen factory in Cornwall, Canada, besides a number of smaller fires. We learn that the Rescue Steam Fire Company of this city, took the commendable precaution, during the entire cold spell we have had, to keep their engine fired up to prevent freezing and to be ready at a moment's warning. A company exercising such

The Old and New:—Roberts Brothers, Boston, $4.00 per annum. One of the best literary publications of the day. The matter is varied and of high order.

Galaxy:—Sheldon & Co. New York, $4.00 per annum. A superior periodical, edited with taste and ability. Mark Twain communicates with this magazine monthly.

Schribner's Illustrated Magazine:—Schribner & Co. New York $3.00 per annum. This is a new candidate for popular favor, and the first two numbers give evidence of decided ability in the general "make up," and we have no doubt but that it will soon become a favorite. It is handsomely printed, and its numerous illustrations add no little to its other attractive features. We wish it all success.

Good Words: Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia; $2.75 per annum. A new volume commences with the new year. If it but sustains the reputation it has established, it will richly merit all the patronage that an intelligent public can bestow upon it. It is one of the best magazines that comes to our table.

The New Eclectic: Trumbull & Murdock, Baltimore; $4.00 per annum. This work deserves the best encouragement at the hands of the South, not because it is a Southern publication, but because of its intrinsic merit. It contains the cream of foreign and domestic magazines, as well as many original articles. Subscribe with the new year.

The Westminster Review: Leonard Publishing Company, New York; $3.00 per annum. It is needless for us to speak of this work. It is a standard publication, and so well and favorably known that it requires nothing at our hands. The present number sustains well the high reputation it has established.

Sunday Magazine: Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia; $3.50 per annum. This work is edited by Dr. Guthrie, who is known as one of the finest writers, as well one of the ablest divines, in the country; and the magazine which he edits is worthy of him. Gotten out in good style, handsomely illustrated, and presents an attractive appearance. It is filled with elegant literature for Sunday reading, both original and selected.

The Southern Planter: Ferguson and Rody, Richmond, Va.; $2.00 per annum. This is a superior agricultural work, well adapted to the section in which it is published, Virginia and North Carolina. Its corps of editors and editorial contributors is a very able and large one. It is worthy of the best support.

Rural Carolinian: Walker, Evans & Co., Charleston, S. C. Filled with interesting and instructive reading matter, and beautifully illustrated, this favorite Southern agricultural magazine is once more welcome to our desk. We notice in this number a valuable communication from Bolivia, another from England, and an acknowledgment of courtesies received from the British Cotton Agent for the East Indies, all showing that the Magazine is read and appreciated in those far distant quarters of the globe. Its immediate home interest is, however, its principal attraction, and its accurate information in regard to the agricultural affairs of the Southern United States, and its special devotion to these, is the cause of its importance to the foreign reader. The Rural is entirely worthy of the wonderful success which it has achieved, and we think that it should be in the hands of every farmer in the South.

The Little Corporal: Lewell and Miller, Chicago; $1.50 per annum. This is one of the best children's publications we ever saw. Beautifully illustrated, it contains such stories as both please and instruct the little ones. Send for it with the beginning of the new year.

The Hearth and Home: Orange, Judd & Co., New York; $4.00 per annum. One of the finest looking and best agricultural, horticultural, pomological journals published. Its department for the family is a superior one, and admirably conducted. Beautifully illustrated. Published weekly. Every family should have it.

The Manufacturer and Builder: Western & Co., New York; $1.50 per annum. So far as we are able to judge, this is a valuable work for all manufacturers and mechanics. It treats upon everything coming under that head. Send for it.

The Reconstructed Farmer: J. R. Thigpen, Tarboro N. C., $2.00 per annum. This is an admirable journal, creditable to North Carolina, and deserves the best encouragement. Its columns give evidence of taste, care and ability. Subscribe for it.

All of the above are for the month of December. Of course they were arranged to suit the season—much of the matter, and many of the illustrations relating to the dying and the coming year. It would have given us pleasure to have given each such notice as they deserved, but our friends must appreciate our situation.

PRETTY GOOD FOR HIM.—We have had weather in various phases since the advent of the holidays. To adopt the Yankee description, "at first it blew, and then it snew, then it friz, and then it chew," and yesterday it rained and was as disagreeable as need be. Very few ladies were out, and those who were compelled to take the streets had our sympathies, for the condition of their skirts struck us as

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

A dispatch from Harrisonburg, Va., 26th, says, a number of the principal business houses burned here this morning between 4 and 5 o'clock, including National Bank, the Rockingham Bank, the American Hotel, Bodine's store and Loss estimated at $100,000; no insurance.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Dispatch special from Brussels of 24th gives account of an engagement between French and Prussians on the 23rd, but not given; the fight was renewed on the 24th.

A dispatch from Richmond to Washington of the 26th, says Hudgins, Colman, Tenn., is known to be lost, making the eighth victim; five are still missing, whose safety there is little hope.

The Herald has the following in relation to the situation in Europe:

The reported defeat of Gen. Chanzy has not been confirmed and probably will not be. At the same time we are prepared to hear of his retirement to Alencon, as will such retirement be necessarily a compulsory retrograde movement. Chanzy's plan is evidently to move as far North as possible, so that he may deliver fourteen forces from the danger of an attack following the sudden junction of the two German armies operating in the vicinity after the battle of the Loire.

The battle which seemed to open favorably for Gen. Faidherbe on the 23d, ended in a complete defeat on the 24th. The details are yet wanting, but the fact of a defeat seems to be fully sustained from reports received from various sources.

Tours has been again entered by the German troops.

The line of Railroad communication between Versailles and Metz is being fortified.

The advance on Lyons has caused great excitement in that city.

Advices from Paris to the 22nd report no further fighting. The loss in the sortie of the 21st was only 800.

AUGUSTA GA.—The election returns come in slowly, but confirm the election of Democrats to Congress from 3rd, 5th, 6th and 7th districts, with chances in favor of Lawton Dem. in the 4th the vote is very close as far as heard from in the 2nd district. The returns are against Tift and in favor of Whiting, Rep. The Legislature will be largely Democratic the returns indicating heavier Democratic gains than was expected. Both Republicans and Democrats charge frauds in the election.

ALL QUIET ALONG THE LINES.—We have never witnessed a more quiet Christmas. No drunks worth mentioning; and very little noise of any kind. We do not believe there has been one-twentieth of fire-crackers used by the boys that is usual on Christmas occasions.

Those having ice-houses were busy, Monday and Tuesday, in filling them. The ice was in fine condition and thicker than it has been for many winters.

Col. R. S. Tucker showed us some on Tuesday seven inches thick. This was made by "flooding," that is, by letting on water upon the top of the first formation, by which the thickness is quickly doubled. We shall have a good store of ice for the coming summer.

ELECTION IN NASH.—A friend writing from Nash county says, "I have just from only two precincts, in which the Democratic gain is over 160 on Manning's vote. The vote in the county, owing to the cold weather, will be a thin one, but our majority will not be less than 200."

Nash, with the "Old Field Gorick" attached, is found to come up all right.

Wednesday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.
part for England about the middle of January; his instructions are not yet made out.

There was a secret conference of several members of the Senate with Fish at the State Department yesterday, the subject not known—all parties perfectly reticent; it was doubtless for mutual explanation, and to reconcile differences which [illegible] in the Republican party.

TENNESSEE.
MEMPHIS, Dec. 28.—Mrs. Lawton, sent her two sons, aged 3 and 16, with a negro named Jeff to Lauderdale, Miss., to sell a lot of cotton, in which Jeff had no interest. Jeff killed the elder boy and the people killed Jeff.

NEW YORK.
NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—The French Minister of foreign affairs has been interviewed; he thinks peace distant, as, to accept the terms of Prussia would be to reduce France to a third rate power. Scarcely a man in France, rich or poor, is willing to allow the government to surrender any portion of territory. Three months ago it was difficult to excite the people, now the difficulty is to keep them patient. The Minister stated that France could procure more arms than she could use from England alone. That she was now struggling for existence, and if she was crushed England would feel the loss more than any other country.—England cannot dream of the consequences if she should allow France to be exterminated. Russia will then do what she pleases in the East, and Prussia in the West. England, without a single ally, will cease to belong to the family of European nations, and will be reduced to a third class power. He closed by stating that the new levies in the South and Southeast were proceeding with a success beyond expectation.

Snow drifts ten feet deep on the Pacific Railroad; passengers were delayed ten days.

The "Herald's special from London, 27th, says: The Manchester "Guardian" contains a statement that King William and the Princess Royal of Prussia, had written to Queen Victoria, protesting against the marriage of Louise to Lorn. The Queen replied, vehemently advising them to mind their own business.

Wednesday Night 9th atches.

TENNESSEE.
MEMPHIS, Dec. 28.—Jack Domer, formerly Sheriff, committed suicide here to-day—cause, poverty.

The Varieties theatre was burned to-day.

NEW YORK.
NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—The residence of Gen. McClellan burned—loss $40,000.

GEORGIA.
AUGUSTA, Dec. 28.—Thomas Speer is elected to the 42nd Congress in the 4th district, by 300 majority; Long is elected to the 41st Congress in the same district. It is believed that Bigby in the 3d, and Whitley in the 2nd district, are elected. Price is elected in the 6th by a large majority.

Chief Justice Brown has resigned. Ex-Gov. James Johnston of Columbus, has been telegraphed for, probably to succeed him.

B. H. Hill is out in a letter denying writing to Radicals, or favoring Radicalism, or seeking office.

FOREIGN.
BORDEAUX, Dec. 28.—Faidherbe in a dispatch to the minister of war, announces that owing to the cold, he will encamp his troops in the rear of Arras and await the prosecution throughout France for the delivery of Paris.

The weather in the South of France is intensely cold.

The Prussians bombarded Calais on the 26th, then entered the place and committed many disorders.

Chanzy sent a formal protest to the Prussian General, and subsequently issued an order to say saying, "I have warned the Prussians against further perpetration of such horrible outrages as they have committed against unarmed towns and people." He adds, "It is evident that France is not combatting loyal enemies, but devastating hordes, but she will continue the struggle to preserve her honor and independence."

MUNICH, Dec. 28.—Sagosta has assumed the post of foreign minister.

MUNICH, Dec. 28.—The Chamber of Deputies have voted in favor of an enlarged South German Bund, and will be united with the North German confederation.

The Bavarian House of Deputies have rejected the federal treaties, with a view of obtaining improvement in the terms.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 28.—The government, in a note to the powers, objects to the discussion of questions relating to the Danubian principalities in the approaching conference.

BOSTON, Dec. 28.—Gen. Chanzy complains bitterly of the conduct of the Prussians. He draws having been defeated and avows his intention to take revenge for the vandalism of the enemy at Calais.

He said that Bourbaki is moving with his army to the eastern portion of France, to operate against Gen. Werder.

Special dispatch from Havre states that there has been intense excitement consequent upon a battle that has been going on since the 20th inst., in the neighborhood, the first important struggle between the French and Prussians in this department. For two days a fight had been expected, and although yet without decisive results, it is regarded as valuable experience in proving the efficiency of the artillery and the capacity of the mitrailleuses and tirours in an encounter with regular troops.

BERLIN, Dec. 27.—Information has been received here that the Turks have occupied the Bosporus and Dardanelles to be protected by torpedoes.

10,000 Nos. Put in the Wheel; 110 Awards Drawn.

Whole Certificates, $5; Halves $2 50; Quarters, $1 25.

WHAT THE CITY PRESS SAY:

PRIZE DRAWING.—Quite a crowd assembled at the Theatre yesterday noon, to witness the Grand Drawing of the North Carolina Beneficial Association. There were 100 prizes in all, and little rolls of paper separating these were placed in a wheel on one side, while the tickets were in another wheel opposite to the former. Between the two was a table, at which sat the Judges and Mr. John Longlon, Commissioner. The wheels were made with glass sides, so that everything within them could be seen and were securely locked, until the drawing began. This was done by means of two little boys, who were securely blindfolded, one drawing a number from one of the wheels and the other the prize to correspond with it. There is no question but that the drawing was done in a perfectly fair and just manner.—Wilmington Daily Journal, Dec. 2nd.

THE GRAND DRAWING YESTERDAY.—The grand single number distribution of the N. C. Beneficial Association, which took place at the Theatre yesterday, at 1 o'clock, was the all-absorbing theme during the day. The drawing took place in public, a committee having been selected from the audience to act with the Commissioner in keeping an account of the same and to see that it was conducted fairly. Quite a respectable crowd was present to witness the drawing. The following numbers drew the principal prizes: No 4016, $5,000; No. 6006, $2,500; No. 5776, $2,000; No. 2942, $2,000; No. 1407, $2,000; No. 4452, $1,000; No. 1486, $500. No "definite surrender values guaranteed" as an inducement to new business, but references made to the average amount paid on each surrendered policy, as shown by the New York Insurance Reports, 1869, as evidence of having paid larger surrender values, than has been given under a minimum "Definite Cash Surrender Value." Death losses have not occurred out of several hundred policy holdays in this State, which fact must establish the better ability of the Company to pay larger dividends than companies having an excessive mortality, the result of a selection of bad risks. POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks, upon which elements of administration the security of a Life insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.
